Statement of Inquiry

Authors portray dystopian societies in order to illustrate relationships between people and provide a different context which will allow readers to question their own society.

Inquiry Questions

1. What constitutes a dystopia?
2. What happens to the individual / the group in a dystopia? What utopia/dystopia do we have in our current society?
3. What utopia/dystopia do we have in our current society? Why is it important for people to have choices?
