

Quarter 1 Project - Historical Fiction Newspaper (Mrs. Coskinas and Ms. Stojanovic-Milic)

Genre: Historical Fiction (a made up story based on something that happened in history)

Due Date:

Description of Project: This book report will be written as a mini newspaper and will include the following items:

Title of Newspaper/Date

Create a title for your newspaper. It should be related to the book. This should be written at the top of the page.

The following are some words commonly used in newspaper titles.

Gazette	Herald	Post	Times
Globe	Crier	Advocate	Chronicle

The date should be related to the time period of the book you read.

Headlines

For each article, write a catchy headline. Headlines are short, tell a little bit about the article, and try to grab the reader's attention.

Articles

1. Your first article should be your cover story. Start with a headline then the rest of the cover story will be about the conflict of the novel. Be sure to include the main characters and the problem and resolution. Use your name as the reporter at the end of the story.
2. The next article should be an article about an event that actually occurred during this time period. Do some research about the time period in which your story takes place. You need to choose an actual historical event from the same GENERAL time period as your story.
3. Choose one of the following to include:
 - Sports article
 - Advertisement
 - Business News
